

LUPC & SUPC Responsible Procurement Event

Wednesday 10 November 2021

09:30 - 12:15

09:30 - 09:35	Welcome by Jayne Thorn (she/her), SUPC and Marisol Bernal (she/her), LUPC
09:35 - 10:15	Webinar 1: Creating a Diverse Workforce from the Ground Up James Gordanifar (he/him) - Head of Early Careers at Clyde & Co In this session, James will give an overview of the work that Clyde & Co have done in building an inclusive and diverse workforce, for now and in the future. With Q&A.
10:15 - 10:30	BREAK
10:30 - 11:15	Webinar 2: The Slavery Free Campus Professor Zoe Trodd (she/her) - Director of the Rights Lab; Dr Lisa Carroll (she/her) - Commercial Director; Daniel Stapleton (he/him) - Strategic Supplier Relationship Manager and Rosie Parkin (she/her), Head of Procurement, University of Nottingham. In this session, the Rights Lab shares an overview of its work on modern slavery and the University of Nottingham provides an update on its Slavery Free Campus programme including how the procurement team supports its work.
11:15 - 11:30	BREAK
11:30 - 12:15	Webinar 3: Carbon Offsetting "What does it mean? How does it work? What do you need to ask?" Simon Dawes (he/him) - Head of Sustainable Business Strategy, Environment Agency This presentation provides an understanding of what is meant by carbon offsetting. Simon discusses the difference between Carbon Neutral and Net Zero; buying gold standard credits versus UK nature-based solutions; where to offset and why; and the measurement of carbon.