

LUPC & SUPC

Annual Responsible Procurement Event

Tuesday 22nd November 2022 9.30am-12.15pm

09:30 – 09:35	Welcome by Rob Johnson, Head of Procurement Services, SUPC and Marisol Bernal, Responsible Procurement Lead, LUPC
09:35 – 10:15	Webinar 1: Overview of the Higher Education TOMs (Themes, Outcomes and Measures) and Social Value in practice Nathan Goode - Chief Strategy Officer, Social Value Portal Jasbinder Sandhu - Deputy Director, LUPC The HE TOMs (Themes, Outcomes and Measures) Guidance and Measurement Framework helps HE bodies to capture, communicate and emphasize the full value of activities where they support their local economy and community. Nathan will provide an overview of the HE TOMS framework and Jasbinder will discuss how the University of Arts embedded social value into its procurement activity. With Q&A.
10:15-10:30	BREAK
10:30-11:15	Webinar 2: The Government Modern Slavery Assessment Tool (MSAT) and Greater London Authority's (GLA) experience of the tool Jonathan Farrimond - Client Delivery Executive, NQC TBC, Greater London Authority Central Responsible Procurement Team The Government Modern Slavery Assessment Tool enables public sector organisations to work with suppliers to identify and manage the risk of modern slavery. In this session, Jonathan of NQC, the developer of the tool, will explain how it works and the GLA will share its experience of using the tool.
11:15-11:30	BREAK
11:30- 12:15	Webinar 3: Standardised Carbon Emissions Reporting Framework Fiona Goodwin - CEO (Interim) EAUC, The Alliance for Sustainability Leadership in Education THE EAUC is developing a Carbon Emissions Reporting Framework with the Department for Education and key sector bodies such as AUDE, BUFDG and UUK. Fiona will discuss the work carried out to date and what it means for you.