Procurement Maturity Study : INTERIM

Sirius Test - JR

This report is based on the results of a moderated self-assessment covering a full range of procurement attributes. It indicates areas that have improved since your last Procurement Maturity Assessment (PMA), and for your new scores provides you with a benchmark compared with other institutions in the PMA programme. The report concludes with an overview of the summary priorities that your institution should address to progress to the next level of procurement maturity. A separate updated action plan is also provided.

1 Procurement Maturity at the Sirius Test - JR

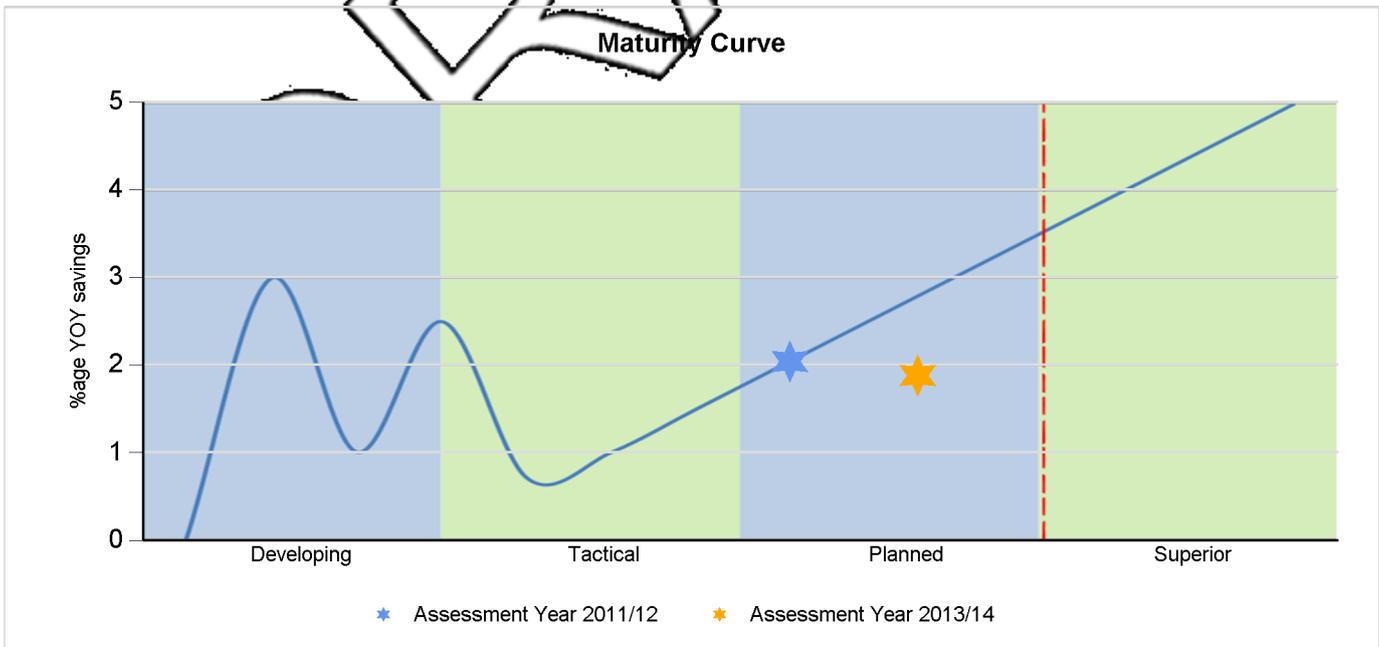

Your institution has been assessed as being in the Planned phase of procurement maturity (with a score of 65% marked by the orange star in Figure 1), which means that it is in the upper middle quartile for procurement effectiveness.

This score represents an improvement in maturity of 10.7% since your last assessment.

An institution in the sector of similar size to yours should be aiming to operate in the upper quartile and regularly be delivering cost savings in excess of 5% each year. Your savings this year were recorded as 1.88%.

If your institution was operating at the Best Practice Indicator target of 3.5% savings (BPI 5) then additional savings of £1,296,000 per annum would be released.

The Maturity Curve is an indicative curve expressing the position generally experienced as procurement in an organisation develops. It attempts to explain the relationship between procurement maturity and savings achieved. At this point there is insufficient data over time to create an empirical based model, but we believe the levels to be conservative based on external benchmarks.

*The target (indicated by the dashed vertical line in Figure 1 above) was agreed by the pilot members of the maturity study (Benchmarking seminar May 2011). The target is set at:

- Planned for a small institution (less than £100m total net income per annum) and
- Superior for a large or very large institution
 - large institution (greater than or equal to £100m total net income but less than £400m total net income per annum)
 - very large institution (greater or equal to £400m total net income per annum).

2 Procurement Maturity Across the Sector

3 Benchmarked Performance against UUK Procurement Attributes

The table below maps the 9 Procurement Attributes against the four stages of maturity and seeks to show your position in comparison to the sector average, the maximum and minimum scores and to the quartiles around the midpoint of the range for the attribute. The sector data in the chart below reflects the latest score from all participating institutions. Each solid blue line positions your institution at a point in its maturity for that attribute.

Procurement Measures

Performance against Procurement Efficiency Survey / UUK Strategic Procurement Group and PEL BPIs

The Procurement Efficiency Survey is undertaken annually and enables institutional procurement teams to demonstrate their efficiencies to institutional senior management and governors. From the 2012/13 Survey the definitions and benchmarks have been updated such that the BPIs are now calculated using impactable spend which is a lower figure than the non pay spend that was previously used. The full definitions and benchmarks can be found on the BUFDG web site.

Metric	2011/12	2012/13
Impactable Spend	£ 60m	£ 80m
Spend Through Collaborative Agreements	£ 10m	£ 12m
Total Gross Efficiencies	£ 1.226m	£ 1.5m
Cashable Savings	£ 0.976m	£ 1.1m
Un-cashable Savings	£ 0.25m	£ 0.4m
Procurement Staff (full time equivalent)		4

The Annual Procurement Efficiency Survey includes a set of six Best Practice Indicators (BPIs) measuring purchasing efficiency and effectiveness that have been developed by the UUK Strategic Procurement Group.

BPI	Bench mark	2011/12	2012/13
1 - Total cost of procurement as % impactable spend	0.6%	0.4%	0.5%
2 - % Impactable Spend channelled through collaborative procurement arrangements	30%	16.67%	15%
3 - % orders placed electronically or via P-Cards	90%	55%	85%
4 - % impactable spend actually influenced by Procurement function	95%	66%	78%
5 - Annual procurement savings as % of impactable spend	3.5%	2.04%	1.88%
6 - % professionally qualified procurement staff	66.7%	50%	75%

Procurement Maturity Assessment Scores

1. PROCUREMENT LEADERSHIP & GOVERNANCE

	Score	Prev
1.1 Does the organisation provide clear leadership of the procurement activity? 1 Developing - Responsibility for procurement activity is not defined. There is no distinct procurement function and no clear leadership for procurement in the organisation. 2 Tactical- Procurement is seen as a distinct function. Responsibility for procurement clearly attributed to an individual and defined within job description(s). There is ad hoc reporting of procurement activity to senior management e.g. major projects 3 Planned - "The Head (leader) of Procurement is responsible for managing all procurement activity and processes within the organisation. Procurement provides reports to senior management at least annually and can access senior management team (SMT) level discussion to raise procurement issues. 4 Superior - Procurement leader is responsible and accountable for all procurement activity and provides regular management reports to the SMT or equivalent. The Head (leader) of Procurement is considered part of a senior 'peer group' with other business functions; sits on appropriate key steering groups, project boards etc; Plays a full leadership role in wider public sector, professional and collaborative initiatives; provides active personal leadership of wider networks. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Organisational	✓	✓
1.2 Is the Procurement function responsible for the effectiveness and quality of procurement activity across the organisation? 1 Developing - Responsibility for non-pay spend is not formally devolved or controlled. 2 Tactical - Procurement has a high degree of influence over Purchasing Procedures but has a low level of involvement in departments' sourcing research and specification activities. 3 Planned - The whole organisation follows corporate Purchasing Procedures established by the procurement function. Only a small proportion (in terms of spend) of sourcing research and specification is conducted without procurement support and influence. 4 Superior - All sourcing research and specifications for high value or high risk procurement have strong Procurement team input. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Organisational	✓	✓
1.3 Does the procurement function effectively manage relationships with internal stakeholders? 1 Developing - Procurement stakeholder management is on an informal, sometimes unrecorded basis. 2 Tactical - Ad hoc recorded reviews with internal stakeholders. Defined roles and responsibilities with some stakeholders. Frequency and composition of meetings is inconsistent 3 Planned - Clearly defined roles with key stakeholders, appropriate to needs. Regular recorded reviews with stakeholders focusing on future procurement activity and relationship management.	✓	✓

4 Superior - Procurement department has a formal process for stakeholder management which is consistently applied. Partnership approach focusing on joint development of business cases and strategy. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Organisational
1.4 How clear is the process of delegation and authority for procurement? 1 Developing - There is no clear process of delegation or authority for procurement 2 Tactical - The published scheme of delegated purchasers sets out authority levels and separation of duties (for contracts and purchasing transactions) which are reviewed regularly. 3 Planned - The Head of Procurement or equivalent is responsible and accountable for ensuring all staff comply with the scheme of delegation. Compliance with the scheme is subject to regular internal audit. 4 Superior - The separation of duties and authority levels are embedded into computer systems to ensure compliance and appropriate authority for all transactions. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Organisational	Score ✓	Prev ✓
1.5 Does internal audit provide assurance that the organisation's internal control systems for procurement are adequate and effective? 1 Developing - There is no evidence of internal or external audit review of procurement over the last 3 years. 2 Tactical - There is an internal audit strategy or framework to provide assurance that basic standards of procurement practice are adequate and an audit has been carried out in the last 3 years. Actions in response to any basic shortcomings identified by internal audit have been fully implemented or have a plan for implementation. 3 Planned - An internal or external audit of procurement has been carried out in the last year. The audit scope is comprehensive and covers strategic and transactional aspects of procurement. Actions in response to any significant gaps or issues have been fully implemented or have a plan for implementation. 4 Superior - Annual internal or external audits of procurement have highlighted no significant (red or highest level) risks in the past three years. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Governance	Score ✓	Prev ✓

2. PROCUREMENT STRATEGY AND OBJECTIVES

2.1 How developed is the organisations procurement strategy? 1 Developing - No documented Procurement Strategy for the organisation or some strategic direction documented, although not complete. There is no link between the organisation's procurement strategy and the organisation's strategic plan	Score	Prev
--	--------------	-------------

2 Tactical - A documented and current Procurement Strategy has been signed off by the SMT or appropriate committee. Procurement Strategy is aligned to the organisation's strategic plan and core business and service objectives and the wider public sector procurement policy It is communicated to the Procurement team and all those with delegated authority. 3 Planned - Strategy communicated across the organisation. The strategy defines the organisation's position with regard to sustainability in procurement. An action plan has been developed from the procurement strategy complete with objectives and performance measures and is updated at least annually. Team objectives reflect the procurement strategy. 4 Superior - The Strategy is fully aligned with sectorial strategies and policies e.g. recommendations from the Diamond Report The organisation's procurement strategy also covers continuous improvement of its procurement activities (e.g. PMA action plan), collaboration and supplier management, with specific reference to core business and services strategies. Individual staff objectives reflect the procurement strategy N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Governance	✓	✓
2.2 Is there a clear process for procurement involvement in strategic reviews of service provision? These reviews would normally consider options such as outsourcing, insourcing, shared services, etc. 1 Developing - No formal process or policy exists and procurement is not involved in the strategic reviews of services. 2 Tactical - Procurement is involved on a reactive basis in strategic reviews, e.g. at the end of the process. 3 Planned - Clear approach for reviewing services is in place and it ensures that Procurement is involved at an early (strategic) stage and there is evidence of this. 4 Superior - Procurement initiates research on market opportunities for strategic innovations to current service delivery and subsequently makes the case for change at a senior level. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Governance	Score	Prev
2.3 How well is the procurement strategy supported by senior management within the organisation? 1 Developing - There is no Procurement Strategy or Procurement objectives are set out in the Procurement Strategy but are not understood or reported. 2 Tactical - The Senior Management Group have signed up to the Strategy 3 Planned - Most senior managers provide full support for the Strategy through communications and provision of resource to support implementation of procurement objectives, including change projects. 4 Superior - All senior managers have signed up to the Strategy and provide full support for its implementation. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Governance	Score	Prev
2.4 Has the procurement function developed, and acted on, an improvement plan for the organisation? 1 Developing - No plan in place or there are no clear benefits identified.	Score	Prev

2 Tactical - An improvement plan has been developed and is being implemented. The plan is largely resourced and owned by the Procurement function. Benefits and savings are being measured, but it is early for results. 3 Planned - The improvement plan is owned by a Procurement Board, or equivalent, and jointly resourced across departments. The plan is on schedule and delivering results. 4 Superior - The improvement plan has been delivered and the organisation has adopted a continuous improvement approach to its procurement performance. Procurement performance is owned by the SMT. Regular reports identify savings and benefits from further improvements. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Organisational	✓	✓
2.5 What level of external collaboration exists to identify and adopt good procurement practice? 1 Developing - No representation outside of the immediate organisation. 2 Tactical - Collaboration with other HEI's or other public sector bodies has led to sharing of best practice where appropriate. Best practice from other organisations has been sought and utilised as appropriate. 3 Planned - Collaboration to develop best practice with peer organisations or other public sector bodies. Collaborating with Consortia or professional procurement bodies on best practice. 4 Superior - Recognised as a lead organisation in procurement best practice areas, including development of strategy and policy. Active role in networks (including non public sector organisations) addressing procurement best practice. The organisation demonstrates evidence of actively facilitating and promoting improved procurement performance across other organisations. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Collaboration	Score	Prev

3. DEFINING THE SUPPLY NEED

3.1 Are specifications for the procurement of goods and services designed to maximise value for the organisation and its customers? (e.g. output specs., technology roadmaps, legislation, whole life costing)? 1 Developing - Many specifications developed without market intelligence and supplier specifications are used as a matter of course. 2 Tactical - The organisation can demonstrate that key contracts are based on robust specifications and output specification where appropriate. There is evidence that the Procurement function has actively challenged requirements and specifications. 3 Planned - Key contracts are based on output specifications (where appropriate) which have been developed based on market research and in line with recognised best practice	Score	Prev
--	-------	------

4 Superior -Market engagement is undertaken prior to issuing the Invitation to Tender through supplier awareness days / open meetings etc. and the market intelligence obtained is used to develop specifications. In addition, specifications for key contracts show an appropriate mix of (a) future-proofing commercial and legislative changes and (b) value for money review and benefit sharing on a whole-life cost or total acquisition cost basis. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Supplier Strategy and Policy
3.2 How early and to what extent is the procurement function involved with internal customer teams in the design and development of their business plans and strategies? 1 Developing - No input from Procurement 2 Tactical - Regularly work with internal customer teams on procurement of existing and future goods, works and services based on their business plans and strategies. 3 Planned - Procurement function is engaged by some internal customers in the joint development of business plans and strategies. 4 Superior - Procurement function is engaged at all levels with all internal customer teams on the development of their business plans and strategies. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Category Management	Score	Prev
3.3 To what extent are the development and management of commodity strategies and the rationalisation of goods, works and services based on reliable and robust internal information? 1 Developing - There is no internal spend data, or data is not sufficiently detailed at line item level to enable the development of strategies or identify opportunities to rationalise good, services or works. 2 Tactical - Spend data at line item level is available and is used to develop some commodity strategies. Some work done to identify opportunities to rationalise goods services and works. 3 Planned - Some forecast data is available and used. Information informs commodity / project strategy. Regular work done to identify opportunities to rationalise goods services and works. 4 Superior - Detailed management information, including line item detail and forecast data, informs all relevant procurement decisions. Information is easily formatted and accessed. Procurement regarded as key source of business intelligence for internal customer strategies. Embedded process including change control for rationalising goods, services and / or works. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Information Systems/P2P	Score	Prev
3.4 Is there effective Demand Management early in the procurement process? 1 Developing - No effort yet made by procurement function to manage demand. 2 Tactical - Some examples of demand management exercises, e.g. review and challenge of internal requirements, service or product rationalisation, alternative service models, etc.	Score	Prev

3 Planned - Review and regular challenge of demand as part of procurement process, including some benefits. Some demand management processes and guidance in place, and some benefits can be demonstrated 4 Superior - Significant improvements and benefits can be demonstrated. Demand management fully integrated in procurement processes. Full demand and consumption data available 'real time' and linked to service improvements N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Category Management	✓	✓
3.5 To what extent, and how, is detailed and rigorous supply market analysis used to drive strategy development? 1 Developing -Basic information exists on current suppliers. Limited / no analysis is completed to support strategy development. Little investment in supply market research. 2 Tactical - Research conducted inconsistently across the market. Supply market reviews conducted when required. Some understanding of supply markets on an on-going basis. Sources of spend data (e.g. The Hub) used for research purposes prior to some procurement exercises. 3 Planned - Research conducted frequently across the market when developing new strategies. Sources of spend data are used for research where appropriate to identify suppliers to inform the commodity strategy. 4 Superior - Most commodity/project strategies are based on comprehensive research of the supply market, including the supply chain. Cost and service drivers fully understood and used to drive strategy decisions. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Category Management	Score	Prev
3.6 Are mechanisms in place to encourage new suppliers and ensure openness and transparency? 1 Developing - Buyer profiles are not on a freely accessible advertising portal Contracts are not advertised on a freely accessible advertising portal 2 Tactical - There is a clear process for introduction of new suppliers. Potential new suppliers are referred to standard documentation or information Buyer Profile has been set up on a freely accessible advertising portal e.g. InTend and/or Organisation's Procurement website and some contracts are advertised and award notices are published on the portal. Automated process for low-value procurement is being utilised where appropriate (e.g. GeM RFQ, Pcards) 3 Planned - Use of automated process for low-value procurement. Advertising contracts is embedded in organisation's procedures and being used across the organisation, with the majority of contracts being advertised and some award notices published. Meet the Buyer events are being held if appropriate. Comprehensive web information for new suppliers. Suppliers are sounded out in early discussions or involved in market testing. Positive action compliant with EU Regulations is taken to increase opportunities for smaller and medium sized enterprises (SMEs).	Score	Prev

4 Superior - All contracts are advertised and all award notices are published, over the Organisation's tender threshold, on a freely accessible advertising portal. Contracts publicised in specialist journals as well as other freely accessible advertising portal when appropriate. Organisation continuously seeks to increase opportunities for SMEs and review innovative supply ideas as well as measure and report performance against SME participation in procurement exercises. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Supplier Strategy and Policy

4. PROCUREMENT COMMODITY / PROJECT STRATEGIES AND COLLABORATIVE PROCUREMENT

4.1 Are commodity strategies and business cases for local contracts and Framework mini-comp's developed in line with recognised best practice	Score	Prev
1 Developing - No standard approach consistent with the recognised best practice for developing appropriate commodity / project strategies. 2 Tactical - The procurement team develops commodity strategies or business cases based on best practice. 3 Planned - There is an organisation-wide sourcing approach in line with recognised best practice. Delegated procurement officers develop commodity strategies or business cases supported by the procurement team. 4 Superior - Examples of commodity strategies or business cases have been developed using recognised best practice and are shared as best practice across the sector. The organisation demonstrates evidence of actively facilitating and promoting improved procurement performance across other organisations. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Category Management	✓	✓
4.2 To what extent are the (local contracts and mini-comps from frameworks) requirement developed as part of a cross functional team (e.g. a UG type activity) when demand crosses departmental boundaries?	Score	Prev
1 Developing - Requirements are developed in isolation and take no account of up to date end users requirements. 2 Tactical - The requirements are developed involving cross functional input for some of the eligible contracts (involving more than one department). 3 Planned - The requirements are developed involving key cross functional input for the majority of eligible contracts. 4 Superior - The requirements are developed involving key cross functional input for nearly all, >80%, of eligible contracts. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Category Management	✓	✓

	Score	Prev
4.3 How much of the overall spend (including local contracts and national/sector framework agreements) is covered by signed-off commodity / project strategies? All strategies should include forecast savings and/or benefits. 1 Developing - Less than 50% of spend covered by commodity / project strategies. 2 Tactical - Between 50% - 70% of spend covered with commodity / project strategies that include forecast savings and/or benefits. 3 Planned - Between 70% - 90% of spend covered by commodity / project strategies that include forecast savings and/or benefits. 4 Superior - Over 90% of spend covered by commodity / project strategies that include forecast savings and/or benefits. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Category Management	✓	✓
4.4 How does the organisation take account of sustainability in its procurement activity? 1 Developing - Procurement strategy, policy and procedures take no account of sustainability OR Strategy, policy and procedures in place, but no outcomes from these are in evidence. 2 Tactical - Sustainable procurement strategy, policies and procedures are in place and are incorporated into major projects. Some social, environmental and economic sustainability outcomes have been delivered. 3 Planned - The organisation can demonstrate that procurement exercises have successful sustainability outcomes and are meeting the sustainability targets from the procurement strategy. There are clear objectives and actions within an improvement plan to build capacity for SME engagement and to increase community benefits as an outcome of the procurement process. Organisations can evidence progress against the action plan. 4 Superior - Evidence shows that sustainability is considered by all procurement practitioners at every stage of the procurement process across all areas of influenceable spend, covering supplies, services and works. The procurement team can demonstrate the success of the above. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Corporate and Social Responsibilities	✓	✓
4.5 How does the organisation monitor its progress towards demonstrating sustainable procurement practices and processes? 1 Developing - The organisation has not yet assessed itself against the Flexible Framework (FF) self-assessment tool or There is no evidence of assessment against any sustainability measurement tool and no plans to implement sustainable procurement processes or practices.

2 Tactical - The organisation has assessed itself against the FF. It has a plan of improvement activities required to achieve level 3 in the FF and can demonstrate progress against the objectives or

The organisation has completed an internal audit of sustainability practices. It may not have developed sustainability initiatives however there are plans and timelines, with some progress shown against these, in place to:

- Define a sustainability champion for the institution
- Develop a Sustainability Policy to be agreed by senior management team
- Utilise tools to assess sustainability risk of all contracts in place (e.g. Prioritisation Tool)
- Develop sustainability targets and implement key performance indicators (KPI's) with suppliers
- Hold sustainability training for staff
- Consult with suppliers on sustainability policies
- Incorporate sustainability in the appraisal processes for all staff

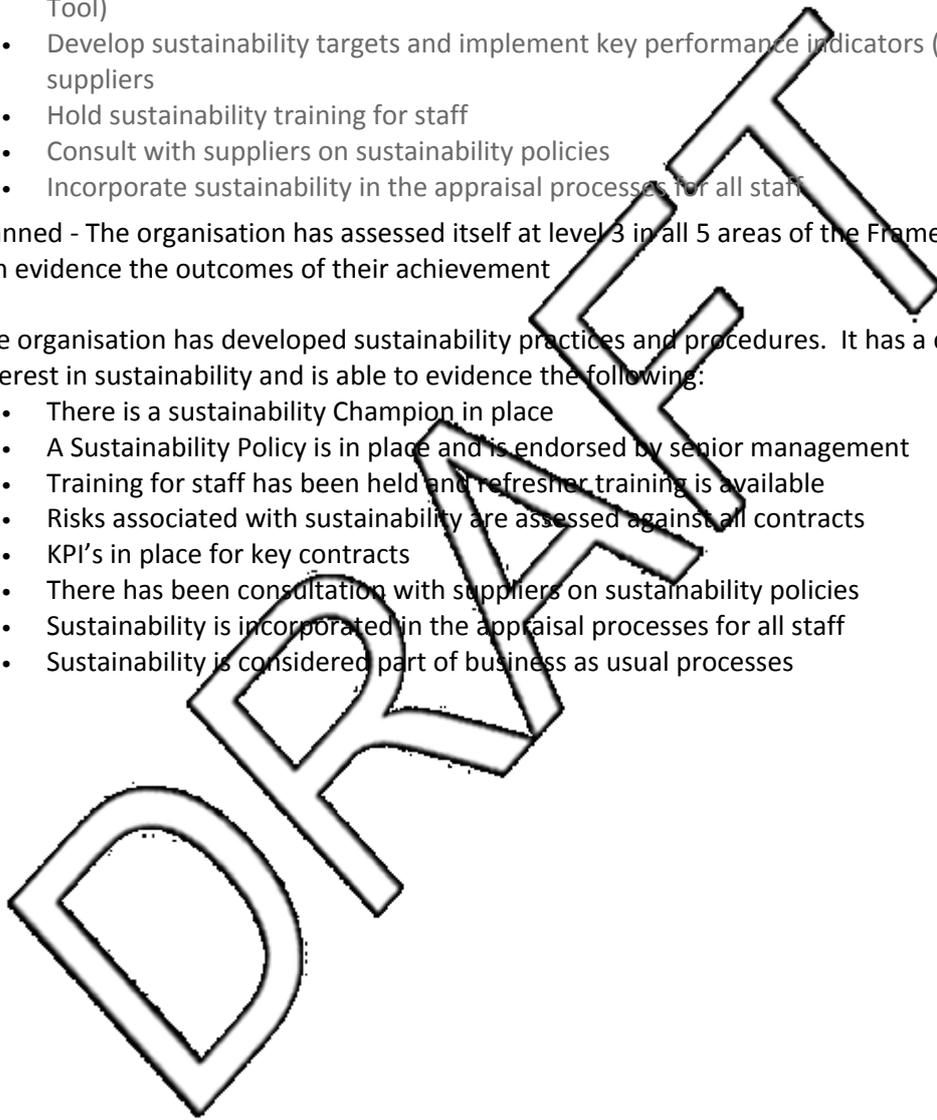

3 Planned - The organisation has assessed itself at level 3 in all 5 areas of the Framework and can evidence the outcomes of their achievement or

The organisation has developed sustainability practices and procedures. It has a clear interest in sustainability and is able to evidence the following:

- There is a sustainability Champion in place
- A Sustainability Policy is in place and is endorsed by senior management
- Training for staff has been held and refresher training is available
- Risks associated with sustainability are assessed against all contracts
- KPI's in place for key contracts
- There has been consultation with suppliers on sustainability policies
- Sustainability is incorporated in the appraisal processes for all staff
- Sustainability is considered part of business as usual processes

4 Superior - The organisation can demonstrate through outcomes that they have achieved level 4 in the FF and have a plan in place to achieve L5 within 2 years or The organisation has well documented sustainability processes and procedures and is able to evidence the following has been achieved or will be achieved within the next 2 years: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sustainability achievements are publicised via case studies to include the benefits achieved • Practices are often shared with other institutions • Awards have been received in recognition of achievements • Sustainability strategy is regularly reviewed and externally scrutinised • Future priorities are well documented and the strategy is recognised and publicised by senior leaders • KPI's in place with major suppliers with progress rewarded or penalised based on performance • Senior management involved in direct dialogue with major suppliers around sustainability and improving their record • Measures in place to inform strategy development • Evidence of benchmarking against other organisations • Benefits of sustainable procurement are evidenced, independently audited and available in the public domain N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Corporate and Social Responsibilities
4.6 How does the organisation manage and mitigate risk during the procurement process? 1 Developing - There is little evidence of risk management during procurement. 2 Tactical - Risk reporting takes place on a reactive basis. Financial stability checked at selection stage. T & Cs are standard for, and used by, the organisation as a matter of course. Obvious conflicts of interest are managed as they arise. 3 Planned - Risk reporting, including sustainability and reputational, is regular and proactive with mitigation plans in place. Management of financial risk based on segmentation is built into mobilisation plans for contracts, including ongoing monitoring of key suppliers' financial stability. T & Cs includes elements of business continuity, e.g. for software, TUPE, etc.. The organisation recognises the need for action to protect against fraud and has plans to address it. Processes identify, and address, potential conflicts of interest before they arise. 4 Superior - Measures are in place to protect the organisation from fraud and from involvement of organised crime in organisational contracts. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Governance	Score ✓	Prev ✓
4.7 How are suppliers selected within the organisation? 1 Developing - There is no formalised selection process for suppliers. or Supplier selection process is inconsistent and the responsibility or final decision does not lie within procurement.	Score	Prev

2 Tactical - There is a clear supplier selection process that is consistently applied throughout the organisation. This process can distinguish between different value/risk profiles on the expected procurement activity. Procurement is responsible for the process. Organisations can demonstrate that the standard Pre-Qualification Questionnaire (PQQ) has been consistently used during the selection process where a two-step selection and award process is necessary. Organisation is adopting a proportionate approach that reduces the need for suppliers to duplicate responses to selection questions across the HE sector. 3 Planned - The supplier selection process should be well communicated throughout the organisation. Procurement is accountable for the application of the supplier selection process across the organisation. 4 Superior - The organisation takes action to reduce the burden of the selection process for suppliers and to improve the process as a whole. Organisations are measuring impact of their selection process on SME access to main contract or sub-contracts. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Governance	✓	✓
4.8 Do post procurement reviews take place to identify lessons to be learned from the process and to determine whether planned benefits and VFM was achieved? 1 Developing - There are no post procurement reviews. 2 Tactical - Post procurement reviews are conducted for some contracts considered by the organisation as high risk. Lessons learned for these are sometimes circulated, but not consistently or systematically. 3 Planned - Post procurement reviews are conducted for all high and medium risk contracts based on segmentation. Lessons learned are always circulated for these cases. 4 Superior - There is a clear and systematic process for circulating lessons learnt. Procurement officers consistently review lessons from earlier projects and adopt revised practices. Independent post project reviews are conducted where appropriate. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Governance	Score	Prev
4.9 How is the organisation increasing its local/regional collaborative procurement with other public bodies? 1 Developing - Not developing locally arranged contracts in collaboration with other HEI's or Public Sector bodies. 2 Tactical - The organisation can demonstrate at least 1 local procurement collaboration contract within the past 12 months. The organisation's role may be solely as a participant rather than leading. 3 Planned - The organisation can demonstrate participation in several local collaborative contracts within the past 12 months. The organisation has analysed spend and other information internally and with potential partners to identify opportunities with anticipated savings and benefits. This has resulted in a plan for future collaboration which is incorporated into the organisation's procurement plan.	Score	Prev

4 Superior - The organisation regularly leads on local collaborations and has embedded local collaboration as part of its procurement procedures. The organisation (at least) annually reviews the opportunities for collaboration with its partners based on market and demand analysis. The organisation tracks and is increasing the number, scope and share of spending on locally arranged contracts on an annual basis. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Collaboration
4.10 Is the organisation working with centres of expertise/consortia on collaborative procurement? 1 Developing - Currently acting independently or utilising only a very small number of collaborative contracts. 2 Tactical -The organisation participates in more than 60% of applicable CoE/Consortia contracts. 3 Planned - The organisation participates in more than 75% of applicable CoE/Consortia contracts, including active participation in UIGs where required, and other aspects of the development of the contracts. 4 Superior - The organisation participates in more than 90% of applicable CoE/Consortia contracts, including active participation in UIGs where required, and other aspects of the development of the contracts. 5. CONTRACT AND SUPPLIER MANAGEMENT

5.1 How does the organisation ensure that all local contracts and frameworks are being used? 1 Developing - No processes in place to ensure that procurement monitor contract usage and maverick spend. 2 Tactical - Procurement ensure users know how and where to find contract information and are aware of purchasing procedures. Mechanisms have been put in place to promote use of contracts like catalogues, and targeted communications and training for delegated purchasers. Some contracts have an implementation plan to embed it across the organisation. Some attempt to monitor and address off-contract/maverick spend. 3 Planned - The majority of appropriate contracts have an implementation plan which include targets and timescales to ensure uptake. There are clear procedures and plans in place to deal with off-contract/maverick spend. Action on off-contract spend is based on analysis of organisational spend data. Consumption is monitored against forecasts as appropriate. 4 Superior - The organisation can evidence how successful the drive to eliminate off-contract spend has been and the savings and benefits delivered. Consumption data informs demand management and future spend analysis. N/A Not Applicable Attribute : Collaboration	Score	Prev
